

'king Tut' on a service train before the addition of the shed, turntable and signals.
My late father, Geoff Bull, is driving.

Photograph by Charles Adams. Originally there was a link to the website of the Embsay & Bolton Abbey Railway's archives section but this no longer works as the site has been redesigned. Hence the copy here.